Please answer the following on a separate sheet of paper:

1. List up to three clubs/organizations that you have been involved with and discuss the nature of your involvement.
2. List your community service experience and describe the most important part of community service to you.
3. Discuss any past or current leadership positions and briefly describe them.
4. Why did you join Friends for Life? What do you hope to get out of this organization?
5. What are your current time commitments? i.e. clubs, jobs, etc.
6. Please answer the question that pertains to the position you are applying for:

Director of Fundraising:

Often the fundraising activities throughout the year become redundant. What creative ideas do you have for fundraising and getting donations? How will you try and get members to come out to the fundraising events? Be creative and specific!

Director of Public Relations:

We hold many events throughout the year. One of the biggest challenges is getting people to attend that are and are not affiliated with the University. How would you publicize on campus? What would you do to reach people not affiliated with the university? Be creative and specific!

Director of Greek Affairs:

There are many organizations on campus that work to help people with various medical conditions. How would you make us stand out to the Greek community? What other ideas do you have for soliciting Greek involvement in all of our events? Be creative and specific!

Director of Community Service:

Think of a new and exciting community service idea for Friends for Life. Describe what some possible activities might be and how you would get members enthusiastic about coming. Be creative and specific!

Socials Director:

Friends for Life is a very open and friendly organization. Members often forge very strong friendships and create a support network for each other. What ideas do you have for giving members a chance to come together and getting to know each other? What activities can Friends for Life offer for members to relax and have a good time? Be creative and specific!
